

DON'T QUIT

*When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low but the debts are high,
And you want to smile but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.*

*Life is strange with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many failures turn about
When we might have won had we stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace seems slow –
You may succeed with another blow.*

*Success is failure turned inside out –
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
You can never tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit –
It's when things seem worst that you must not quit.*

Shadowing the White Man's Burden Gretchen Murphy,2010-05-03 During the height of 19th century imperialism Rudyard Kipling published his poem The white man s burden While some of his American readers argued that the poem served as justification for imperialist practices others saw Kipling s satirical talents at work and read it as condemnation The author explores this tension embedded in the notion of the white man s burden to create a historical frame for understanding race and literature in America She maintains that literature symptomized and channeled anxiety about the racial components of the U S world mission while also providing a potentially powerful medium for multiethnic authors interested in redrawing global color lines She identifies a common theme in the writings of African Asian and Native American authors who exploited anxiety about race and national identity through narratives about a multiracial U S empire
