Doris An Anthology Zines:

Doris Cindy Crabb, 2007* Cindy writes her zine Doris like she is figuring out the human condition. She makes writing about the simplest and most common things playing music childhood cooking or sex resonate with universal understanding. She helps us make sense of more complex things like the satisfaction from doing useful work natural curiosity the ability to use logic gender dynamics introspection the need for challenge and change combating depression and creating art and literature. She explores more difficult subjects like abortion rape sexual harassment and dealing with the death of family in a context that is enlightening and personal feeling like a close friend opening up to you. What's most impressive though is that she relates these things throughout her zines with seamless beauty. Page 4 of cover Doris Cindy Crabb, 2005 A zine about supporting people who have been abused back page Girl Zines Alison Piepmeier, 2009-11-01 The first book length exploration of the quirky feminist booklets. These messy photocopied do it yourself documents cover every imaginable subject matter and are loaded with handwriting collage art stickers and glitter. Though they all reflect the personal style of the creators they are also sites for constructing narratives identities and communities. Girl Zines is the first book length exploration of this exciting movement. Alison Piepmeier argues that these quirky personalized booklets are tangible examples of the ways that girls and women do feminism today. The idiosyncratic surprising and savvy arguments and issues showcased in the forty six images reproduced in the book provide a complex window into feminism's future where zinesters persistently and stubbornly carve out new spaces for what it means to be a revolutionary and a girl. Girl Zines takes zines seriously asking what they can tell us about the inner lives of girls and women over the last twenty years The Encyclopedia of Doris Cindy Crabb, 2011 The brand new anthology of the ever popular zine Doris.
