DOE DOE J Explanation	Direct Quote and Page Number	Quote Significance/Response
	"For the survivor who chooses to testify, it is clear: his duty is to bear witness for the dead and for the living. He has no right to ignore a victim's generation or to write himself out of a past that belongs to our collective memory. To forget would be not only dangerous but offensive; to forget the dead would be akin to killing them a second time" (Eliezer, 24).	Through this quote, Eliezer expressed his stance on indifference. One must be there witness to "killing". I wanted to state it is the duty of the people to stand up for those who lost their lives by reflecting future generations about the awful things that can happen when good people remain indifferent.
