Dossier Interpol De Verborgen Wereld Van Interpol:

The Containment of Organised Crime and Terrorism Cyrille J.C.F. Fijnaut, 2016-11-21 This unique volume collects articles and contributions to edited books published throughout his distinguished career by Professor Cyrille Fijnaut one of the world's leading experts in the fields of organised crime security and criminology It makes clear what issues the author systematically explored over the years and how he helped to shape the fields in which he has worked and continues to work The texts reflecting the author's profound understanding of these complex fields and wealth of experience on a practical level are presented according to topic In addition the volume offers English translations of seminal articles published originally in Dutch thus making these important texts accessible to international scholars for the first time The volume thus constitutes a unique and indispensable resource for scholars and practitioners inside and outside the Netherlands

Crime in Europe Martin Farrell, Frances Heidensohn, 2002-11-01 While some European nations share similar crime rates and trends many differ widely in their approach to criminal justice And as Europe's internal frontiers prepare to give way to a single market issues such as the movement of terrorists international fraud and drug trafficking take on new significant dimensions This is the first book to address these issues and attempt a comparative criminology for Europe The contributors cover a range of subjects including crime prevention women and crime the relationship of ethnic minorities to crime and the police corporate crime accountability in the prison system

Policing World Society Mathieu Deflem, 2002 This book offers a sociological analysis of the history of international police cooperation in the period from the middle of the 19th century until the end of World War II It is a detailed exploration of international cooperation strategies involving police institutions from the United States and Germany as well as other European countries
