Third Language Acquisition in Adulthood Jennifer Cabrelli Amaro, Suzanne Flynn, Jason Rothman, 2012-12-19 In recent years researchers have acknowledged that the study of third language acquisition cannot simply be viewed as an extension of the study of bilingualism and the present volume's authors agree that a point of departure that embraces the unique properties that differentiate L2 acquisition from L3 L<sub>n</sub> acquisition is essential From linguistic sociological psychological educational and cognitive viewpoints it has become increasingly apparent that the study of L3 L<sub>n</sub> acquisition can provide new evidence to help resolve ongoing debates in these areas of study This volume uniquely provides a wide ranging overview of current trends in the study of adult additive multilingualism from formal psycholinguistic and sociolinguistic perspectives adding new insights into adult multilingual epistemology This collection includes critical reviews of L3 L<sub>n</sub> morphosyntax phonology and the lexicon as well as individual studies with unique language pairings including Romance Germanic Slavic and Asian languages

New Perspectives on Transfer in Second Language Learning Liming Yu, Terence Odlin, 2016 When people attempt to learn a new language the language's they already know can help but also hinder their understanding or production of new forms This phenomenon known as language transfer is the focus of this book The collection offers new theoretical perspectives some in the empirical studies and some in other chapters and consists of four sections considering lexical syntactic phonological and cognitive perspectives The volume provides a wealth of studies on the influence of Chinese on the acquisition of English but also includes studies involving Finnish French Hindi Korean Persian Spanish Swedish and Tamil It will be of great interest to researchers and students working in the areas of crosslinguistic influence in second language acquisition language pedagogy and psycholinguistics
