One-Minute Stewardship Charles Cloughen Jr, 2018-06-17 A collection of meditations on the importance of stewardship Much has changed in the 21st century world of stewardship Now a person may use electronic funds transfer or use a credit card after clicking on a website link instead of dropping a check in the offering plate Stewardship witness videos can be linked to the church's website One Minute Stewardship is designed to promote the development of a meaningful theology of giving in a new age These short reflections indexed by Scripture theme event and lectionary can be included in weekly parish e-mails newsletters weekly bulletins or read as an invitation to the offering during worship The book addresses the issue of designated giving which is usually separate from general stewardship appeals and is designed to empower clergy and lay leaders to promote the message of good stewardship every Sunday of the year

Stewardship in African-American Churches Melvin Amerson, 2015-11-01 When the church embraces the responsibility of living as faith managers of God's vast resources as Psalm 24:1 teaches the community of faith will prosper So begins this practical and theological study of stewardship both in the context of the African American church tradition and beyond After all a systematic approach to stewardship undergirds the ministry and mission of the church universal A stewardship consultant Amerson draws upon his experience to help churches develop a theology of generosity define stewardship leadership roles celebrate the offering each week and establish endowment giving While recognizing still relevant traditions he also points to newer tactics and strategies convenient to both members and congregations including electronic giving contribution statements and year end giving A highlight of the book is Amerson's explanation of the development of a narrative budget narrative spending plan He also writes about stewardship education at multiple levels This book is a solid resource for financial stewardship education Money Legacies Donald V. Romanik, 2022-02-22 How to break free from the personal money story developed early in life that can shape your financial future Family experiences can define our attitudes about money even as we mature including how we spend it save it and give it away Consequently our childhood often determines our approach to money during our entire lives Donald Romanik President of the Episcopal Church Foundation helps readers discover the consequences of that money legacy for individuals and for the churches and other organizations to which they belong Generosity, Stewardship, and Abundance Lovett H. Weems Jr., Ann A. Michel, 2021-05-09 God's purpose in calling us to lives of faithful stewardship and generosity isn't merely to sustain the church Rather the continued existence of the church is essential to sustain the powerful transformative message of our faith Lovett H. Weems Jr and Ann A. Michel present the Bible's redeeming and transforming message of generosity stewardship and abundance in this comprehensive guide to Christian financial responsibility The book provides practical advice to pastors and church leaders tasked with funding ministry and inspiring others toward responsible stewardship and greater generosity It addresses church fundraising stewardship campaigns budgets financing capital needs endowments and innovative approaches to economic sustainability The book integrates the theological and practical dimensions of finance to empower congregational leaders to think critically about stewardship from a Christian perspective help them use their personal and congregational possessions in the light of faith A Spirituality of Fundraising Workbook Edition Henri J. M. Nouwen, Nathan Ball, 2019-07-01 The why and how of faith based fundraising and stewardship For years many faith based fundraisers and communities have been inspired by Henri J. M. Nouwen's book A Spirituality of Fundraising and his approach to fundraising as a calling and ministry Many who are inspired by Nouwen's vision remain hesitant to ask for money saying I don't have the personality to raise money or Asking for money still feels too complicated and makes me fearful Nathan Ball a close colleague and friend of Nouwen tackles these trepidations head on with his workbook providing a 4 week how to guide for putting Nouwen's culture shifting vision into practice Nouwen and Ball lift up fundraising as a powerful way of loving and building community They provide gentle guidance that will help people from all walks of life reimagine the task of fundraising and access the inner conviction and external skills to engage in the task of fundraising In this workbook readers will find the complete original text of A Spirituality of Fundraising plus extensive commentary on its themes There are many questions for reflection and journaling prompts for listening and meditation and instructions for using the book as an individual or with a group The Practice of Stewardship in Religious Fundraising Daniel Conway, Cecelia Hart Price, 1998-03-14 Insights to improve religious fundraising practices The Practice of Stewardship in Religious Fundraising examines the principles challenges and current methods of fundraising in the context of the church The 17th Volume of the New Directions for Philanthropic Fundraising series this book features chapters written by leaders in the field to provide insight on prominent issues based on real world perspective Topics range from accountability and the problems with stewardship as a model to stumbling blocks implications for practice and more Beyond Stewardship John William Zehring, Kate Jagger, 2016 Authors John Zehring and Kate Jagger have run a lot of fundraising campaigns and they bring that experience to bear in this practical resource for churches. Beyond Stewardship applies the best principles of fundraising to the annual giving campaign in local congregations. By emphasizing the individual givers and the act of giving as integral to the givers' spiritual life, this book goes beyond typical stewardship models to celebrate the generosity already demonstrated by church members and to invite further giving based on that generous past. Using a collaborative paradigm that engages leadership across the church, this volume offers four interlocking strategies for a successful annual giving campaign: personal visits, concentric circles of commitment, public witness, and direct mail. Features practical appendix of tools and resources Abundance Michael R. Ward, 2020-01-07 This book by pastor and certified fund raising executive CFRE Michael R. Ward provides church leaders a resource to lead their congregations to a new culture of generosity and abundance that raises more money as well as more disciples. Written specifically with pastors, congregation councils, finance committees, and stewardship teams in mind, this book encourages and guides a process of study, reflection, and action that is clear and practical. Ward taps into years of experience fundraising in the nonprofit sector to address the ongoing challenges of financing ministry. His goal is to empower congregations and other nonprofit organizations to expect and plan for generosity. The book moves from grounding stewardship ministry biblically and theologically to setting up the basic building blocks for strong stewardship, including board development, stewardship planning, and strategic planning. From there, it addresses practical tactics such as case development, communication, donor mentality, roadblocks, volunteers, and steps to a gift. Real life stories and examples of growing stewardship programs and capital campaigns are provided along with practical hands-on tools to help groups plan, develop, and implement stewardship plans The Heart of Stewardship, the Practice of Faith Keith Clark-Hoyos, 2025-09-20 The Heart of Stewardship: The Practice of Faith is a comprehensive workbook for church treasurers, finance committees, and stewardship teams who seek to approach financial leadership as sacred ministry. Written as a companion to The Ministry of Money and integrated with the Effective Church Leadership Community (ECLC), this guide reframes stewardship not as bookkeeping alone but as a Spirit-led calling rooted in Scripture and discernment. Structured around three retreats: Spiritual Reframing, Practical Protective, and Visionary Sustainable, the workbook offers a complete formation process that can be adapted for one-day intensives, half-day sessions, or ongoing leadership groups. Each retreat includes biblical reflections, journaling prompts, prayer, practical exercises, and group discussion guides, ensuring that both the spiritual and technical aspects of stewardship are fully addressed. Leaders will learn how to reclaim money as a spiritual matter and align budgets with mission. Shift from scarcity thinking toward abundance rooted in God's provision. Establish trustworthy bylaws, policies, and financial safeguards. Implement ethical accounting practices and transparent reporting. Navigate compliance and risk management with integrity. Mentor successors and cast a vision for sustainable long-term stewardship. Drawing on the Calling Energy Resources and Discernment CERD framework from Embracing Our Call this workbook equips financial leaders to integrate faith and practice so that money becomes a witness to God's mission rather than a distraction from it Practical templates case studies and ECLC tools provide hands on support for churches of varying sizes and traditions Accessible and spiritually grounded The Heart of Stewardship The Practice of Faith empowers treasurers and finance committees to serve with integrity courage and hope It is ideal for use in consulting packages self guided cohorts or as a training resource for leadership retreats Whether you are a new treasurer seeking clarity or a seasoned finance chair looking to mentor others this workbook will help you cultivate a ministry of stewardship that is faithful transparent and visionary Proven Resources for Stewardship Promotion ,2001 It's no secret that because stewardship is often viewed as little more than a euphemism for discussing money and budget matters it's an uncomfortable topic for many in the ministry But Allan Weenink makes no apology for his zealous approach to stewardship he believes that the spiritual dimension is just as important as the financial and that cultivating the grace of generosity is vital for Christian ministry Drawn from countless workshops and seminars conducted during Weenink's years as a stewardship consultant this book provides a wealth of proven hands on material that will help you develop an effective stewardship model It's a practical ministry resource that will yield bountiful dividends As a pastor consultant and member of national church committees Al Weenink has learned what the church needs to know about stewardship From biblical understandings to practical suggestions what Weenink shares is well worth reading Enjoy the gift and the challenge from one who loves Jesus Christ and cares deeply about the future church David Wasserman General Presbyter Grace Presbytery Presbyterian Church U S A Proven Resources For Stewardship Promotion is a rich collection of information from Al Weenink's many years of experience in helping the Presbyterian Church U S A remain fiscally faithful to its call for mission and ministry in a troubled world Weenink challenges us to a holistic approach as we struggle to make every congregation a living model of sacrificial stewardship His command of theological understanding deep faith and practical application is priceless This volume belongs in every church in the hands and hearts of pastors officers and lay leaders who will use it as a precious guide Patricia F Karns Former Associate for Stewardship Synod of the Covenant Presbyterian Church U S A Allan J Weenink has had a long and distinguished career in the ministry highlighted by 24 years as senior pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Battle Creek Michigan and 16 years as a consultant on stewardship and mission for the Presbytery of Lake Michigan He has traveled extensively throughout the world visiting and speaking at various mission projects and served on five occasions as a Volunteer in Mission in the Philippines His sermons and articles have appeared in such publications as The Clergy Journal Pulpit Digest and The Minister's Manual A Revolution in Generosity Wesley K.
