Barron, 2001 The Official Index to The Times ,1914 Freedom András Sajó, Renáta Uitz, 2017-11-04 Constitutional democracy is more fragile and less natural than autocracy While this may sound surprising to complacent democrats more and more people find autocracy attractive because they were never forced to understand or imagine what despotism is Generations who have lived in stable democracies with the promise that their enviable world will become the global normal find government rule without constitutionalism difficult to conceive It is difficult but never too late to see one s own constitutional system as something that is fragile or up for grabs and in need of constant attention and care In this book Andras Sajo and Renata Uitz explore how constitutionalism protects us and how it might be undone by its own means Sajo and Uitz s intellectual history of the constitutional ideal is rich in contextual detail and informed by case studies that give an overview of both the theory and practice of constitutionalism worldwide Classic constitutions are contrasted with twentieth century and contemporary endeavours and experimentations in checks and balances Their endeavour is neither apologetic and certainly not celebratory nor purely defensive this book demonstrates why constitutionalism should continue to matter Between the rise of populist anti constitutional sentiment and the normalization of the apparatus of counter terrorism it is imperative that the political communities who seek to sustain democracy as freedom understand the importance of constitutionalism This book is essential reading for students of law and general readers without prior knowledge of the field as well as those in politics who believe they know how government works It shows what is at stake in the debate on constitutionalism International Index to Periodicals ,1915 An author and subject index to publications in fields of anthropology archaeology and classical studies economics folklore geography history language and literature music philosophy political science religion and theology sociology and theatre arts
