Feeding Anorexia Helen Gremillion, 2003-08-22 A groundbreaking study of anorexia treatment that shows how the treatment often makes the disease worse

Narrative Therapy Catrina Brown, Tod Augusta-Scott, 2006-08-03 This volume is especially useful in demonstrating the effects of placing social discourses at the center of therapy. It goes against many sacred cows of the larger modernist therapeutic community but in doing so it offers new ideas for mental health professionals attempting to help their clients with common and serious life problems.

PSYCRITIQUES This compilation is an insightful read for practitioners who have not taken the opportunity to use narrative therapy in practice. Experienced practitioners will certainly appreciate the theoretical analysis offered by the writers as well as the opportunity for reflective practice.

Narrative Therapy is a meaningful contribution to a Canadian book market lacking in clinical literature for social workers.

CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS Narrative Therapy Making Meaning Making Lives offers a comprehensive introduction to and critique of narrative therapy and its theories. This edited volume introduces students to the history and theory of narrative therapy. Authors Catrina Brown and Tod Augusta Scott situate this approach to theory and practice within the context of various feminist post modern and critical theories. Through the presentation of case studies Narrative Therapy Making Meaning Making Lives shows how this narrative oriented theory can be applied in the client therapist experience. Many important therapeutic situations abuse addictions eating disorders and more are addressed from the narrative perspective. Rooted in social constructionism and emerging initially from family therapy narrative therapy emphasizes the idea that we live storied lives. Within this approach the editors and contributors seek to show how we make sense of our lives and experiences by ascribing meaning through stories which themselves arise within social conversations and culturally available discourses. Our stories don't simply represent us or mirror lived events they actually constitute us shaping our lives as well as our relationships. Narrative Therapy will be a valuable supplemental textbook for theory and practice courses in departments of Counseling and Psychotherapy and of Social Work as well as for courses in Gender and Women Studies.

Throop, 2009 Psychotherapy American Culture and Social Policy provides a lively indictment of psychotherapy and individualism by examining American cultural structures child rearing family life mental illness and education Throop advances a complex argument that American reliance on psychotherapy to explain these structures is a poor justification which neglects those most in need and pain Both interdisciplinary and solidly anthropological this study is sure to provoke discussion from both the right and the left and cause serious consideration of Throop's call for cultural change and just social policies

Rather than focus on a single example the contributors address different contested illnesses chronic fatigue syndrome and environmental illness for instance as well as the contested dimensions of illnesses that are accepted as legitimate such as cancer and autism Contesting Illness offers valuable insights into the assumptions practices and interactions that shape illness in the twenty first century Contributors Jan Angus Pia H B low Peter Conrad Joyce Davidson Helen Gremillion Maren Klawiter Joshua Kelley Steve Kroll Smith Katherine Lippel Pamela Moss Michael Orsini Michael J Prince Annie Potts Mary Ellen Purkis Sharon Dale Stone Cheryl Stults Katherine Teghtsoonian Jane M Ussher Catherine van Mossel Writing, Punishment and the Self Margaret M.
