Feeling Hurt In Close Relationships Advances In Personal Relationships:

Feeling Hurt in Close Relationships Anita L. Vangelisti, 2009-07-31 Feeling Hurt in Close Relationships presents a synthesis of cutting edge research and theory on hurt Being hurt is an inevitable part of close relationships What varies from relationship to relationship is not whether partners hurt each other but how their relationship is affected by hurtful episodes Given the potential influence of hurt feelings on people's interpersonal relationships it is not surprising that scholars have begun to study the antecedents processes and outcomes associated with hurt This collection integrates the various issues addressed by researchers theorists and practitioners who study the causes of hurt feelings the interpersonal events associated with hurt and the ways people respond to hurting and being hurt by others To capture the breadth and depth of the literature in this area the work of scholars from a variety of disciplines including social psychology communication sociology and family studies is highlighted

Social Influence on Close Relationships Christopher R. Agnew, 2014-10-09 How do we choose a partner to initiate a relationship with and what makes us stay in a given relationship over time These questions are most often pursued by scholars with an emphasis on the internal thoughts feelings and motivations of individual decision makers Conversely this volume highlights the importance of considering external influences on individual decision making in close relationships Featuring contributions from internationally renowned scholars the volume is divided into two interrelated sections The first section considers global and societal influences on romantic relationships and the second focuses on social network and communicative influences on romantic relationships Taken together this collection helps us to better understand how external factors influence the internal machinations of those involved in intimate relationships

Power in Close Relationships Christopher R. Agnew, Jennifer J. Harman, 2019-02-28 An outline of how power an inherent feature of social interactions operates and affects close relationships

Interdependence, Interaction, and Close Relationships Laura V. Machia, Christopher R. Agnew, Ximena B. Arriaga, 2020-06-18 Explores the latest developments in the processes underlying intimate relationships from an interdependence theory perspective

Personality and Close Relationship Processes Stanley O. Gaines, 2016-08-18 Relationship science is dominated by studies that emphasize situational or outside person influences on close relationship processes In contrast Gaines Jr emphasizes personality or within person influences on relationship dynamics This book integrates personality theories and research on attitudes traits values motives emotions and moods as influences on close relationship processes

Intimate Relationships across Cultures Charles T. Hill, 2019-06-20 A ground breaking study of the ways that intimate relationships are similar around the world and the ways they are different

The Sociocultural Context of Romantic Relationships Brian G. Ogolsky, 2023-10-25 Embedded within the sociocultural context of romantic relationships are features such as race culture neighborhoods the legal system and governmental policy Due to the inherent difficulties with studying large structures and systems little work has been done at the macro level in relationship science This volume spotlights the complex interplay between romantic relationships and these structural systems including varied insights from experts in the field In turn more diverse and generalizable research programs on the social ecology of relationships can be developed helping to facilitate advances in theory Scholars and students of relationship science in psychology sociology communication and family studies will benefit from these discussions This title is part of the Flip it Open programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details Advances in Personal Relationships ,1994 A research annual
