Feminist Film Studies Janet McCabe, 2004 Feminist Film studies Writing the Woman into Cinema provides an introduction to feminist film theory as a discourse that grew in cultural significance since the early 1970s to the present Page 4 of cover

Film Theory Felicity Colman, 2014-06-14 Film Theory addresses the core concepts and arguments created or used by academics critical film theorists and filmmakers including the work of Dudley Andrew Raymond Bellour Mary Ann Doane Miriam Hansen bell hooks Siegfried Kracauer Raul Ruiz P Adams Sitney Bernard Stiegler and Pier Paolo Pasolini This volume takes the position that film theory is a form of writing that produces a unique cinematic grammar and like all grammars it forms part of the system of rules that govern a language and is thus applicable to wider range of media forms In their creation of authorial trends identification of the technology of cinema as a creative force and production of films as aesthetic markers film theories contribute an epistemological resource that connects the technologies of filmmaking and film composition This book explores these connections through film theorisations of processes of the diagrammatisation the systems methodologies concepts histories of cinematic matters of the filmic world

The Gangster Film Ron Wilson, 2014-12-16 This volume examines the gangster film in its historical context with an emphasis on the ways the image of the gangster has adapted and changed as a result of socio cultural circumstances From its origins in Progressive era reforms to its use as an indictment of corporate greed the gangster film has often provided a template for critiquing American ideas and values concerning individualism success and business acumen The gangster genre has also been useful in critically examining race and ethnicity in American culture in terms of otherness Films studied include Musketeers of Pig Alley 1912 The Racket 1928 The Captive City 1952 The Godfather Part Two 1974 Goodfellas 1990 and Killing Them Softly 2012

The Road Movie Neil Archer, 2016-01-12 Though often seen as one of America's native cinematic genres the road movie has lent itself to diverse international contexts and inspired a host of filmmakers As analyzed in this study from its most familiar origins in Hollywood the road movie has become a global film practice whether as a vehicle for exploring the relationship between various national contexts and American cinema as a means of narrating different national and continental histories or as a form of individual filmmaking expression Beginning with key films from Depression era Hollywood and the New Hollywood of the late 1960s and then considering its wider effect on world cinemas this volume maps the development and adaptability of an enduring genre studying iconic films along the way

The Sports Film Bruce Babington, 2014-03-18 After covering the genre's early history and theorizing its general characteristics this volume then focuses on specific instances of sports films such as the biopic the sports history film the documentary the fan film the boxing film and explores issues such as gender race spectacle and silent comedy Four major films are then closely analysed Chariots of Fire Field of Dreams the Indian cricket epic Lagaan and Oliver Stone's Any Given Sunday While recording American film's importance to the genre the book resists the conventional over concentration on American cinema and sports by its attention to other cinemas for example the British Indian Australian South Korean Thai German New Zealand Spanish and so on with the many different sports they depict      International Politics and Film Klaus Dodds, Sean Carter, 2014-05-14 International Politics and Film introduces readers to the representational qualities of film but also draws attention to how the relationship between the visual and the spatial is constitutive of international politics Using four themes borders the state of exception homeland and distant others the territorial and imaginative dimensions of international affairs in particular are highlighted But this volume also makes clear that international politics is not just something out there film helps us better understand how it is also part of everyday life within the state affecting individuals and communities in different ways depending on axes of difference such as gender race class age and ethnicity      Bio-pics Ellen Cheshire, 2014-12-16 Bio pics A Life in Pictures offers a series of case studies which throw light on this most unique of genres Is the bio pic a genre in its own right Or are such films merely footnotes in other more traditional genres such as the western or costume drama depending on the historical figure under scrutiny Unlike other genre forms bio pics seemingly share no familiar iconography codes or conventions They can be set anywhere and at any time What links them is quite simply that the films depict the life of an important person Through a carefully selected range of thematically linked English language bio pics released since 1990 this book explores key issues surrounding their resurgence narrative structure production subject representation or misrepresentation and critical response The films under discussion are grouped around a profession writers singers politicians sportsmen criminals artists allowing for comparisons to be drawn in approaches to similar subject matter

Action Movies Harvey O'Brien, 2012-11-20 Action Movies The Cinema of Striking Back is a study of action cinema exploring the ethics and aesthetics of the genre with reference to its relatively short history It moves from seminal classics like Bullitt 1968 and Dirty Harry 1971 through epoch defining films like Rambo First Blood Part II 1985 and Die Hard 1988 to revisions reboots and renewals in films like Kill Bill Vol 1 2003 Taken 2008 and The Expendables 2010 The action genre is a fusion of form and content a cinema of action about action It is a cinema of the will configured as a decisive reaction to untenable circumstances Action heroes take up arms against the sea of troubles that beset them safe in the knowledge that if they don't do it nobody will Though this makes the action movie profoundly disturbing as an embodiment of moral ideology its enduring appeal proves the appetite for assurance remains undiminished even in the wake of 9/11      Prison Movies Kevin Kehrwald, 2017-02-14 Prison Movies Cinema Behind Bars traces the public fascination with incarceration from the silent era to the present Often considered an offshoot of the gangster film the prison film precedes the gangster film and is in many ways its opposite Rather than focusing on tragic figures heading for a fall the prison film focuses on fallen characters seeking redemption The gangster's perverse pursuit of the American dream is irrelevant to the prisoner for whom that dream has already failed At their core prison films are about self preservation at the hands of oppressive authority Like history itself prison films display long stretches of idleness punctuated by eruptions of violence dangerous moments that signify liberation and the potential for change The enclosed world of the prison is a highly effective microcosm one that forces characters and audiences alike to confront vexing issues of race class gender and sexuality These portrayals of men and women behind bars have thrived because they deal with such fundamental human themes as freedom individuality power justice and mercy Films examined include The Big House 1930 I Want to Live 1958 The Defiant Ones 1958 Cool Hand Luke 1967 Midnight Express 1978 Escape from Alcatraz 1979 The Shawshank Redemption 1994 and Starred Up 2013      Bibliographic Index ,2007
