Gender and Christian Ethics Adrian Thatcher, 2020-10-22 In this book Adrian Thatcher offers fresh theological arguments for expanding our understanding of gender He begins by describing the various meanings of gender and depicts the relations between women and men as a pervasive human and global problem Thatcher then critiques naive and harmful theological accounts of sexuality and gender as binary opposites or mistaken identities Demonstrating that the gendered theologies of Hans Urs von Balthasar and Karl Barth as well as the Vatican's war on gender rest on questionable binary models he replaces these models with a human continuum that allows for sexual difference without assuming opposite sexes and normative sexualities Grounded in core Christian doctrines this continuum enables a full theological affirmation of LGBTIQ people Thatcher also addresses the excesses of the male female binary in secular culture and outlines a hermeneutic that delivers justice and acceptance instead of sexism and discrimination Feminism and Christian Ethics Susan Frank Parsons, 1996-02-29 Feminists are aware of the diversity of thinking within their own tradition and of the different approaches to moral questions in which that is manifest This book describes and analyses that diversity by distinguishing three distinct paradigms of moral reasoning to be found within feminism Using the writings of feminists the major strengths and weaknesses of each theory are considered so that creative dialogue between them can be encouraged Three common themes are drawn out which are also on the agenda of new developments in philosophical and Christian ethics the search for an appropriate universalism the possibility of a redemptive community and the development of a new humanism Feminists may be encouraged through this account of their considerable scholarship in ethical thinking to contribute to these changes with their special concern for the lives and the fulfilment of women Sex, Gender, and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill, 1996-08-28 This book endorses feminist critiques of gender yet upholds the insight of traditional Christianity that sex commitment and parenthood are fulfilling human relations. Their unity is a positive ideal though not an absolute norm Women and men should enjoy equal personal respect and social power In reply to feminist critics of oppressive gender and sex norms and to communitarian proponents of Christian morality Cahill argues that effective intercultural criticism of injustice requires a modest defence of moral objectivity She thus adopts a critical realism as its moral foundation drawing on Aristotle and Aguinas Moral judgment should be based on reasonable practical prudent and cross culturally nuanced reflection on human experience This is combined with a New Testament model of community centred on solidarity compassion and inclusion of the economically or socially marginalised Human Dependency and Christian Ethics Sandra Sullivan-Dunbar, 2017-10-05 Dependency is a central aspect of human existence as are dependent care relations relations between caregivers and young children persons with disabilities or frail elderly persons In this book Sandra Sullivan Dunbar argues that many prominent interpretations of Christian love either obscure dependency and care or fail to adequately address injustice in the global social organization of care Sullivan Dunbar engages a wide ranging interdisciplinary conversation between Christian ethics and economics political theory and care scholarship drawing on the rich body of recent feminist work reintegrating dependency and care into the economic political and moral spheres She identifies essential elements of a Christian ethic of love and justice for dependent care relations in a globalized care economy She also suggests resources for such an ethic ranging from Catholic social thought feminist political ethics of care disability and vulnerability studies and Christian theological accounts of the divine human relation Gendering Christian Ethics Jenny Daggers, 2012-11-30 Gendering Christian Ethics brings together ethical reflections by a new generation of European and American researchers Contributors are well versed in feminist theology and feminist theory chapters build on foundations laid by pioneers who first raised questions of gender and Christianity Christian ethics have a bearing on the conduct of Christian theology church or institution and on distinctive Christian ways of engaging with the wider world Gendering Christian Ethics addresses these inner and outer dynamics Living Together and Christian Ethics Adrian Thatcher, 2002-03-21 The first positive in depth study of cohabitation outside marriage from a mainstream Christian The Ethics of Gender Susan Parsons, 2001-10-10 The Ethics of Gender investigates the impact theological perspective of thinking with gender on modern ethics and considers the insights that postmodern gender theory might bring to the Christian Ethics at the Boundary Karen V. Guth, 2015-09-01 In contemporary reflection on Christianity ethical project and politics the work of realist witness and feminist theologians has been done in isolation Christian Ethics at the Boundary offers the first collaborative approach to public and political theology Extending the strong contextual work of Robin W Lovin Stanley Hauerwas Kathryn Tanner Monica A Coleman and Mary McClintock Fulkerson author Karen V Guth engages the prominent public theologians Reinhold Niebuhr John Howard Yoder and Martin Luther King Jr to identify new trajectories for future work in Christian ethics Moral Passion and Christian Ethics Robin Gill, 2017-03-06 Using a range of disciplines this book explores the relationship between moral passion and rational ethical deliberation Femenist Ethics and Natural Law Cristina L. H. Traina, 1999-04-28 Heated debates over such issues as abortion contraception ordination and Church hierarchy suggest that feminist and natural law ethics are diametrically opposed Cristina L H Traina now reexamines both Roman Catholic natural law tradition and Anglo American feminist ethics and reconciles the two positions by showing how some of their aims and assumptions complement one another After carefully scrutinizing Aguinas s moral theology she analyzes trends in both contemporary feminist ethics theological as well as secular and twentieth century Roman Catholic moral theology Although feminist ethics reject many of the methods and conclusions of the scholastic and revisionist natural law schools Traina shows that a truly Thomistic natural law ethic nonetheless provides a much needed holistic foundation for contemporary feminist ethics On the other hand she offers new perspectives on the writings of Josef Fuchs Richard McCormick and Gustavo Gutierrez arguing that their failure to catch the full spirit of Thomas s moral vision is due to inadequate attention to feminist critical methods This highly original book proposes an innovative union of two supposedly antagonistic schools of thought a new feminist natural law that would yield more comprehensive moral analysis than either existing tradition alone This is a provocative book not only for students of moral theology but also for feminists who may object to the very notion of natural law ethics suggesting how each might find insight in an unlikely place The Obligated Self Mara H. Benjamin,2018-05-24 Mara H Benjamin contends that the physical and psychological work of caring for children presents theologically fruitful but largely unexplored terrain for feminists Attending to the constant concrete and urgent needs of children she argues necessitates engaging with profound questions concerning the responsible use of power in unequal relationships the transformative influence of love human fragility and vulnerability and the embeddedness of self in relationships and obligations Viewing child rearing as an embodied practice Benjamin's theological reflection invites a profound reengagement with Jewish sources from the Talmud to modern Jewish philosophy Her contemporary feminist stance forges a convergence between Jewish theological anthropology and the demands of parental caregiving

Reenvisioning Sexual Ethics Karen Peterson-Iyer,2022-04-01 In Reenvisioning Sexual Ethics Karen Peterson Iyer applies a feminist Christian framework to practical sexual issues facing young adults today from sexting and hook up culture to sex work and sex trafficking This feminist justice based approach to sexual ethics will facilitate meaningful discussion about sexual agency and flourishing New Feminist Christianity Mary E. Hunt,Diann L. Neu,2010 A collection of essays by proclaimed feminist Christians discussing their accomplishments and examining the lasting problems that hinder women s participation in the Christian community Justice in the Making Beverly Wildung Harrison,2004-01-01 Beverly Harrison has long fought for women and others at the margins challenging the subjugating ways in which women s intellectual contributions their gifts of ministerial leadership and their reproductive capacity and sexual identity have been defined This collection of essays and lectures presented over the course of her career demonstrates the progression of Harrison s contribution to the field of Christian ethics and the evolution of her thought in response to changing social realities

Disruptive Christian Ethics Traci C. West,2006-01-16 This book brings to the fore the difficult realities of racism and the sexual violation of women Traci West argues for a liberative method of Christian social ethics in which the discussion begins not with generic philosophical concepts but in the concrete realities of the lives of the socially and economically marginalized Global Justice, Christology and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill,2013-01-17 A Christian response to global realities of human inequality poverty violence and ecological destruction in the twenty first century Feminist Theological Ethics Lois K. Daly,1994-11 A groundbreaking work that documents more than 20 years of feminist theological and ethical discussion this volume includes the contributions of 20 distinguished women scholars who discuss a variety of issues ranging from the task of changing society s assumptions about women to ways in which people can live together in the modern world AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program American Academy of Religion. Meeting,1998 Changing the Questions Margaret Farley,2015-03-01 Mutuality Dawn M. Nothwehr,2005-07-25 By selecting as her focus mutuality

Nothwehr brings to the fore an issue of perennial importance in Christian social ethics that of power As she shows feminist theology invites religious ethicists to reconceive normative questions of power from the vantage point of its dynamic mutual sharing a sharing that encompasses not only individual relations but society and the natural world She also demonstrates how attention to relations of mutuality sheds light on the spectrum of classical Christian theological and moral topics revealing dimensions of our traditions that standard assumptions about power as domination tend to obscure Christine Firer Hinze Associate Professor of Theology Marquette UniversityThis book allows mutuality to take its rightful place along with love and justice in Christian social ethics Written with great clarity with excellent scholarship and with the thinking of key historical figures in mind this book focuses on the thinking of four contemporary Christian feminists Beverly Wildung Harrison Carter Heyward Elizabeth Johnson and Rosemary Radford Ruether to show that mutuality is at the heart of ethics But it does more It shows that mutuality at the heart of the human at the heart of the divine and at the heart of the meeting between the two John J Shea visiting Associate Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling Boston CollegeDawn Nothwehr employs a corrective category mutuality At first blush the term would seem too tender and nebulous to address the splits in our consciousness but this theologian brings well informed care to its definition It becomes in her hands a critical tool which can do healing surgery on many foundational categories of Catholic theology and indeed on much of modern thinking beyond the pale of Catholicism Mutuality calls attention to the essential interdependency of all that is in our cosmos Daniel C Maguire Professor of Theological Ethics Marquette University
