Feminist Practice And Poststructuralist Theory:

Feminist Practice and Poststructuralist Theory Chris Weedon, 1987-01-01 Feminist Practice and Poststructuralist Theory offers a clear and accessible introduction to poststructuralist theory focusing on questions of language subjectivity and power. It examines how we might use poststructuralism to theorize gender identity and experience in patriarchal societies. Drawing on the work of Saussure, Derrida, Freud, Lacan, Kristeva, Irigaray, Cixous, and Foucault, it argues for a form of feminist poststructuralism that can help bring about social change. This new edition has been revised and updated and includes an additional final chapter on the recent debate about feminism and postmodernism.

Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory Mike Cole, Dave Hill, Peter McLaren, 2002-12-11 Postmodernism has become the orthodoxy in educational theory. It heralds the end of grand theories like Marxism and liberalism, scorning any notion of a united feminist challenge to patriarchy, of united anti-racist struggle, and of united working class movements against capitalist exploitation and oppression. For postmodernists, the world is fragmented, history is ended, and all struggles are local and particularistic. Written by internationally renowned British and American educational theorists, Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory is a substantially revised edition of the original 1999 work. Postmodernism in Educational Theory critically examines the infusion of postmodernism and theories of postmodernity into educational theory, policy, and research. The writers argue that postmodernism provides neither a viable educational politics nor the foundation for effective radical educational practice and offer an alternative politics of human resistance which puts the challenge to capitalism firmly on the agenda of educational theory, politics, and practice.

The concept of Ecriture Feminine in Helene Cixous's "The Laugh of the Medusa" Simon Wortmann, 2013-04-15 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies, Literature, grade 1-7. Christian Albrechts University of Kiel, language English, abstract. In the year 1975, the French feminist author

Helene Cixous published an essay called The Laugh of the Medusa In it she develops an entirely new theoretical concept with the aim of giving rise to feminist voice The central ideas of Ecriture Feminine literally women s writing are going to be presented in this paper In the first part a brief description of Cixous s intellectual milieu is given in order to show the actual reason that led her to come up with a new notion of liberating women from patriarchy In this context an elaboration on poststructuralism the philosophical current Cixous belonged to follows Closely related to that is the authors skepticism towards Sigmund Freud s language philosophy Specifically speaking Freud s statements on the penis envy theory Primary attention is paid to the theory of phallocentrism which can be seen as one of the main reasons for Cixous s writings For a better understanding of this term the concept of logocentrism is also explained as well Logocentrism can be seen as a pillar of the theory of phallocentrism and therefore it deserves to be mentioned at this point In the second part we deal with the question of what is actually meant by women s writing Furthermore we will analyze which role the female body and sexuality plays in this context This excursion is highly interesting as it is crucial for the understanding of her concept Since the female body is considered a key for women to resist masculinist thinking and hence the systematic repression of women Apart from that we try to show whether features of Ecriture Feminine are evident in the The Laugh of the Medusa Moreover a different viewpoint on Cixous s theory is shown in the chapter Criticism in which arguments for and against her theory are shown In point five Conclusion the main aspects of this paper are summed up When writing this paper the main source of information were essays on women s writing and French feminist writing dating from 1987 to 1986 Besides secondary literature on literary and cultural theory as well as feminist practice and poststructuralist theory were used Recent research on Cixous s work however could not be found The only source dealing particularly with her writings dates from 1991
